Thomas T. Allsen

Thomas T. Allsen is one of the premier scholars of the Mongol Empire and the history of medieval Eurasia. He received a B.A. in History from Portland State University in 1962, an M.A. in Russian Studies from the University of Washington in 1964, an M.L.S. in Librarianship in 1969 from the University of Oregon and his PhD in Comparative Asian History in 1979 from the University of Minnesota. After briefly teaching at Western Kentucky University (1979–1980), he spent his teaching career at Trenton State College, now The College of New Jersey, until his retirement in 2002.

He has won numerous awards including the prestigious National Endowment for the Humanities and Guggenheim fellowships. His books, all path-breaking and viewed as essential reading for scholars of Eurasian history, include: Mongol Imperialism. The Policies of the Grand Qan Möngke in China, Russia, and the Islamic Lands, 1251–1259 (1987), Commodity and Exchange in the Mongol Empire. A Cultural History of Islamic Textiles (1997), Culture and Conquest in Mongol Eurasia (2001) and The Royal Hunt in Eurasian History (2006). He is also the author of numerous articles and chapters in books.
